

WHAT CAN I DO IF I RECEIVED AN INELIGIBILITY DECISION BUT HAVE EVIDENCE THAT I AM ELIGIBLE?

If your Claim is found ineligible and you have evidence that may demonstrate you are eligible, such as school records, you can submit that evidence by June 27, 2027.

Do you have school records?

YES

NO

If you have school records, you can submit that evidence following these steps:

- 1 If you are considering challenging the ineligibly decision, please call Class Counsel for assistance at 1.844.539.3815.
- 2 Gather all relevant documents:
 - a. school records
 - b. supporting information or documentationClass Counsel will be able to provide you legal advice on what to include.
- 3 You have 120 days from the date you receive the Claims Administrator's notice or June 27, 2027, whichever is later, regarding the level assessment to challenge the ineligibility decision.

If you are considering challenging the ineligibility decision, please call Class Counsel for assistance at 1.844.539.3815.

If you do not have school records, you can request them. One way to access your school records is to submit an Access to Information and Personal Information (ATIP) request.*

How to get an ATIP request:

1. Go to the ATIP request page at <https://atip-aiprp.tbs-sct.gc.ca/en/Home/Privacy>
2. Select "Continue"
3. If you are the Claimant, select "my personal information." If you are Personal representative select "Personal information about someone other than myself"
4. Select "Indigenous Services Canada"
5. Create an account or select "Proceed as guest"
6. Enter your email address and verify it
7. Select the option that applies to you
8. Under Request label write "[Claimant Name] school records"
9. Under Request description write, "All Federal Indian day school records for [Claimant Name]"
10. Under Language of record select your preference
11. Under Request format select "Electronic"
12. At the next step, you may attach documents if you wish (this is necessary if you are requesting information about someone else)
13. On the next page, provide all your personal information. Under Preferred method of communication for correspondence, select "email"
14. Confirm all the request details and click Submit

*Other ways to potentially access school records is to contact the school itself or sometimes the province or territory may have school records.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR INELIGIBILITY LETTER, WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO CONTACT CLASS COUNSEL AT 1.844.539.3815 OR DAYSCHOOLS@GOWLINGWLG.COM

What is my deadline to provide evidence?

If your Claim is found ineligible and you have evidence that may demonstrate you are eligible, such as school records, you can submit that evidence within:

- 120 days of the date of the ineligibility decision, or
- June 27, 2027, whichever is later

Canada will review and consider the new information. If there is sufficient evidence demonstrating you are eligible, the Claims Administrator may reprocess your original Claim.
